NOOS colours

Tired of smelly synthetic fibres and sweaty cotton polo shirts? Then you need Sportwool. Sportwool is a functional knitted material made of pure extra fine merino wool on the inside and pure polyester on the outside. This unique combination gives you a number of advantages:

Natural odour protection. Natural regulation of temperature. UV protection. Fast drying time and iron free. Great colour stability.

Munich is made in our innovative and functional Sportwool for a long-lasting comfortable feel, even under stressful situations and hard work. Combining the best in modern man-made fiber technology with the proven attributes of ultrafine merino wool.

The ultimate polo with button-down collar. Contrasting stripes at the placket and three buttons. Slit at side seam. So classic it can be used instead of a shirt. Slim fitted.
